

Name _____ Date _____ Period ____/100

Part I: Read the ARTICLE on the BACK SIDE and MARK THE TEXT 50 points

MARK THE TEXT GUIDELINES

1. Number the paragraphs

2. Circle Key Terms, Names of People, Names of Places, and Dates

3. Underline an Author's Claims/ relevant information

A process Definitions Descriptions Evidence Explanations Data/ statistics

Part II: Read the article on the back side in order to determine that main ideas in the author's claims/ thesis statements. 50 points

Write the MAIN IDEAS in the lines provided

1. Definition of Bullying

Thesis: Three different forms of bullying that are common in children are

_____, _____, and _____.

2. Scope of the Problem

Thesis: Bullying is not only a problem in the United States, but also in countries like

_____, _____, and _____.

3. Scope of the Problem

Thesis: Bullying in _____ (girls or boys) often leads to what is known as relational aggression, which includes _____,

_____, and _____.

4. The Problem of Underreporting

Thesis: The problems of bullying often go underreported and children tend not to report bullying because _____,

_____, and _____.

5. Short Term Effects on Bullying

Thesis: Bullying has several long and short-term effects that can be damaging in a child's life; three short-term effects include _____,

_____, and _____.

6. Long Term Effects on Bullying

Thesis: Bullying has several long and short-term effects that can be damaging in a child's life; three long-term effects include _____,

_____, and _____.